CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

THE total number of immigrants who arrived in the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896 was 344,267, being an increase of 84,- 731 over the number for the preceding year, and of 45,147 over the number of arrivals for the year ended June 30, 1894.

A Los Angeles man opened a saloon in Yuma Sunday. In its "As they come and go" column the Sun says of the newcomer: "Although he will dis-pens liquor he will drink his particular specialty will be the bottle trade." The Californian is evidently "on" to the Yuma public.

The enforced activity in the mines at this season of the year, by reason of the necessity for doing the annual assessment work upon the mines, is resulting in the development of many new ore bodies upon which work will probably be continued after the assessment work has been completed.

A Connecticut lawyer, having called a brother lawyer "an ass," has now been prosecuted for libel, with damages at $10,000. Of course he cannot afford to let the plaintiff get a judgment against him by default, so the case will have to be heard in court, and just what means the plaintiff will take to prove that he is really not an ass, passeth conjecture.
